

2017 Sam Campbell Memorial Scholarship Application

This program is dedicated to provide an annual scholarship to a graduating high school senior who plans to study a business program at a college, university or vocational school. College scholarship funds will be awarded in the amount of $500. Scholarship will be awarded directly to the institution of choice after registration is confirmed for Fall 2017.

Entry Requirements

1. Fill out the application completely.
2. Enclose a letter not longer than 500 words stating your interest in the scholarship.
3. Return the application and letter by the deadline date indicated at the bottom of your application.

Award Process

1. Each entrant must be a local high school student who is a senior enrolled in a Greater Spokane Valley high school or is a resident of the area completing equivalent studies (home school).
2. The scholarship award will be selected by a panel unrelated to the applicants and will include members of the Sam Campbell family.
3. All awards decisions of the panel are final and irrevocable. Should the award recipient not be able to use the scholarship, a runner-up will be selected.
4. The award will be presented to the scholarship winner at the Chamber's June 16 Business Connections Breakfast from 7-9:00 a.m. at Spokane Valley Event Center.
