

Government Action Committee Voting Member Application

The role of our committee is to inform, educate, engage and advocate for the businesses of Greater Spokane Valley regarding public policy. We do this by becoming educated on important issues and then passing on that knowledge to the business community and the citizens of the Greater Spokane Valley.

Any member of the Greater Spokane Valley Chamber is welcomed and encouraged to attend our monthly meetings. For those members that wish to be more involved we offer them the opportunity to become voting members.

To become a voting a member please complete and return this application to the Greater Spokane Valley Chamber.
